What Students Say...

“An NUS graduate should always be concerned about the world they live in, and they must be confident that they can make a difference…”

“Prof Straughan’s lectures are engaging and interesting as she draws parallels from real life examples to elaborate on concepts and theories from the lectures, textbooks and readings. I look forward to attending weekly morning lectures.”

“Prof Straughan is very enthusiastic in the content that she is teaching, and this keeps us interested in her lectures. She also always bring in examples which encourages our understanding of the concept. Her sense of humour during lectures is also something that keeps us liking this module and her lectures.”
